

PRICING CONDITIONS FOR PAYMENT SERVICES PROFESSIONAL CLIENTS

August 2024

The following prices do not include taxes.

Due to rounding, unit amounts may not add up to the total amount payable.

Any capitalised terms used in these pricing conditions without being defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in Stancer's "General Conditions of Use (Professional Clients)".

1. PRICES FOR THE MOST REPRESENTATIVE SERVICES ASSOCIATED WITH A PAYMENT ACCOUNT LISTED IN ARTICLE D. 312-1-1 I. A. OF THE FRENCH MONETARY AND FINANCIAL CODE (CODE MONÉTAIRE ET FINANCIER)

In accordance with Article 1 of the Order of 5 September 2018 implementing Articles L. 312-1-1 and L. 314-13 of the French Monetary and Financial Code (Code monétaire et financier), Stancer is required to include in the first section of its pricing conditions the most representative services associated with a payment account listed in Article D. 312-1-1 I. A. of the French Monetary and Financial Code (Code monétaire et financier).

For a definition of the services listed above, please refer to the glossary available on Stancer's website.

¹The term "remote banking" is provided for in the regulations. It does not mean that Stancer offers its clients one or more services of a banking nature.

²Excluding the cost of a fixed or mobile Internet connection.

2. PRICES ASSOCIATED WITH THE ACQUIRING SERVICE

The fee charged by Stancer for each Card-based payment transaction is the sum of:

- the Variable Fee, which covers, in particular,
 - (i) the interchange fee (within the meaning of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2015/751) and
 - (ii) fees paid to Card Schemes.
- Stancer's Service Fee.

The table below shows the fees charged by Stancer to the Client for each Card-based payment transaction in the Account, depending on the Card scheme (CB, Visa, Mastercard) and the country in which the Card was issued:

Card Scheme	Geographic area (country in which the Card was issued)	Variable Fee (as a % of the transaction amount ³)	Service Fee (per transaction)
			Without Electronic Equipment	Using Electronic Equipment ⁴
				For a transaction \geq €7	For a transaction $<$ €7
CB	France	0.70%	€0.15	€0.07	€0.00
Visa	EEE	0.70%	€0.15	€0.07
	Outside the EEE	2.50%	€0.25	€0.12
Mastercard	EEE	0.70%	€0.15	€0.07
	Outside the EEE	2.50%	€0.25	€0.12

The interchange fee varies mainly according to:

- the Card's Card Scheme,
- the Type of Card holder (Individual or Professional),
- the Card Category,
- the country in which the Card was issued,
- the degree of security afforded by the payment environment (card and acceptance equipment).

For more information on the interchange fees applied by each Card Scheme in the European Union, the Client may consult the websites of the Card Schemes in question:

- CB: www.cartes-bancaires.com,
- Mastercard: www.mastercard.com,
- Visa: www.visa.co.uk.

The fees paid to Card Schemes vary according to:

- the Card Category,
- the country in which the Card was issued,
- the currency of the Card,

³The amount taken into account is the absolute value of the amount of the payment transaction, excluding conversion charges (regardless of the currency).

⁴Electronic Equipment provided by Stancer.

- the Card Brand,
- whether authorisation is requested.

The amounts of the interchange fee and the fees paid to Stancer's various banking partners (Fees, Card schemes for certain Categories, Type of cardholder, Card brands, etc.) actually borne by Stancer exceed the values of the Variable Fees. In this case, Stancer shall charge the Client the amounts of the interchange fee and the fees paid to the Card Schemes, with a surcharge of 10%, in lieu of the Variable Fee.

In the event of an outstanding payment related to a Card-based payment transaction, additional fees shall be borne by the Client. These fees paid to the Card Schemes vary according to the Card Scheme:

- Cartes Bancaires (CB): €3
- Visa: €25
- Mastercard: €25
